“ Well, let’s see! Affordability, ease of use, variety, every class/subject you can imagine or need for ALL grades, NO common core, great teachers, and great support!! I Love SchoolhouseTeachers.com! ”

Elizabeth Black | North Carolina
SchoolhouseTeachers.com has taken the work out of planning your homeschool year with homeschool curriculum guides and boxes for each grade. Every virtual box is filled with downloadable materials, including:

- A curriculum guide for each subject that correlates objectives with the SchoolhouseTeachers.com Scope and Sequence
- Weekly checklists to keep you on track
- Daily checklists that guide you—and your student—through each activity
- Direct links to the SchoolhouseTeachers.com courses and resources you need weekly
- All the additional suggested materials for the year listed in one place, like art supplies and notepaper
- Links to additional SchoolhouseTeachers.com resources for those days you want to spend more time on a topic your kids love
“SchoolhouseTeachers.com has helped me avoid many headaches dealing with lesson planning. The only problem I am having is what course to wait another year for because we can’t do them all.”

“The best thing about SchoolhouseTeachers.com is that I have options for classes to teach all three of my kids (aged 5-11) in all subjects . . . so, no running around doing math with curriculum/site A and science on site/curriculum B, and literature somewhere else entirely. ”

Unit Studies & Parent eBook Library

In addition to the many courses available for Mom and Dad, there are unit studies and an eBook library with more than 40 eBooks.
Literacy Center

Teach Your Child to Read in 101 Simple Steps. The Literacy Center provides consistent strategies to use with students of all ages. It is designed to help you determine where to begin reading instruction with your student. You will find links, techniques, and/or strategies to guide your instruction, helpful tips for creating a literary environment, and suggestions for correcting errors.

High School Center

The resources you need to make it through high school. The High School Center provides a wide variety of high school courses in all subject areas (including exciting electives) as well as academic weighting information for most courses. You will also find help for creating transcripts, taking the SAT and ACT, finding scholarships, and much more.

Career Center

Utilize the reference guide to help reach your goals. The Career Center provides a list of courses available through SchoolhouseTeachers.com grouped together by vocational field to help your child develop skills toward a future career path.
Physical Education Center

Help your child develop and maintain a healthy lifestyle. The Homeschool Physical Education Center teaches the importance and benefits of physical fitness, how to incorporate it into your family’s lifestyle, and how to achieve and maintain physical fitness. Learn how to engage in physical activity with confidence in a variety of environments.

Special Needs Center

Tools you can use to help your child with special learning needs excel. The Special Needs Center provides encouragement and focuses on resources to help overcome some of the unique challenges of homeschooling a child with special needs.

Other Focused Learning Centers

SchoolhouseTeachers.com also offers the following learning centers to help your children thrive:
