We apologize for the inconvenience, but the lesson plan for Exploring God’s World with Sixth Grade Science is currently unavailable.

Due to the discontinuation of World Book’s Science Power library, this course is in the process of being revised. Lessons are available on the website, but an updated lesson plan will not be available until after the course has been completed.

We appreciate your patience and grace as we update this course.